NOTABLE BIOS

Darin Greseth, BG Products, Inc. Board of Directors

BG Products, Inc., Board of Directors appointed Michigan distributor Darin Greseth as new president, effective April 2010. In 1984, Greseth began his career as BG sales rep in Denver. Three years later, he moved to Georgia to be the BG sales manager for Premaco, Inc. Then, in 1997, he partnered with the BG Distributor from Georgia to form his current distributorship, Premaco Michigan.

Gov. Haslam (term limited in 2018) Co-owner of the TN Smokies Minor League Team

Bill Haslam is an American businessman and politician who is the 49th and current Governor of Tennessee. A member of the Republican Party, Haslam was elected governor in 2010 and was sworn in on January 15, 2011. Bill is term-limited and is prohibited by the Tennessee Constitution from seeking a third consecutive term. The Tennessee Gubernatorial Election of 2018 will take place on November 6, 2018. There are 5 declared republican candidates including Diane Black (R-TN 6th District) and two declared democratic candidates including Karl Dean (Former Mayor of Nashville).

Bill began his career in business, joining his father, Jim Haslam, who was the founder of Pilot Corporation. Haslam rose to president of Pilot Corp in the 1990s, after his brother Jimmy became the company's CEO. Haslam then left Pilot and from 1999 to 2001 was the CEO of the e-commerce and cataloging division at the department store chain Saks Fifth Avenue. He then became a consultant at Saks, served on the board of directors at Harold's Stores, Inc. and still remains a co-owner of the minor league baseball team the Tennessee Smokies.
